Dear Parents/Carers,

I know that technology is playing a key role at the moment to support children's home learning and as a result I would just like to build on the previous updates you have received and share some helpful information that I have come across.

This information is to act as a helpful reminder of how to stay safe online and is there to support both you and your child.

The following website have some brilliant information and activities to support children to ensure they continue to be safe online.
